Address by the Principal

30th June 2016 – Graduation day

Welcoming speech for the graduation day 2016

Dear Mr. Yeung, school managers, distinguished guests, parents, teachers and students of BSTC, ladies and gentlemen,

Good afternoon! First let me extend my warmest welcome to our guest of honor for the graduation ceremony this afternoon, Mr. Kevin Yeung. Mr. Yeung is the Under Secretary for Education of the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. Before joining the Government in 1992, Mr. Yeung had worked in the private sector for seven years. During his service in the Government, Mr. Yeung has worked in a number of bureaux and departments, including the Food and Health Bureau, the Home Affairs Bureau, the Kowloon City District Office, and the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Sydney. Mr. Yeung holds a Bachelor of Social Sciences degree from the University of Hong Kong (HKU) and a Master of Business Administration degree from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology University in Australia.

Mr. Yeung serves as the Under Secretary and maintains a good relationship with all stakeholders while considering different policies as well as tackling education problems.

Mr. Yeung's sincerity and frankness have always been well received among different stakeholders in the education sector and we all look forward to having more communication and cooperation with the Education Bureau in the future.

Dear graduates, please also give another big round of applause to your dedicated teachers and supporting staff, who have contributed much of their personal time to taking care of you during the past six years. Without these dedicated teachers and staff, I am sure you would have come across much more difficulties during your secondary school life.

We have been working very hard to make Sin Tak a caring and supportive learning community, with the aim of providing challenging and inspiring learning experience to equip our students with necessary knowledge, skills and a positive attitude towards life. We have chosen pre-lesson tasks and questioning techniques as our major concerns for the past few years, expecting that our students will become responsible learners and make more efficient and effective use of lesson time and preparation time, so as to extend their learning beyond the routine lessons. With our dedicated and committed teachers, I am confident that the experience you gained in lessons will continue to be invaluable assets which can help you overcome the difficulties ahead.

This afternoon, we are together again to celebrate the graduation day for our form 6 graduates. I can see many familiar faces, eagerly looking around for their classmates and teachers. We can still recall the memorable time at the farewell party for the S6 students this year. Time flies and now, form six graduates, you are moving on to the next stage of life where you are bound to face different challenges and difficulties. I hope you found the NSS education system and your learning experience at Sin Tak fruitful and enjoyable. Do remember that we have already arranged a briefing session this coming Saturday, July 2nd. Please invite your parents to come with you that day, as we will disseminate the most up-to-date information about university admission that morning.

I am sure you are all waiting eagerly for Mr. Yeung's inspiring speech in a while. Let's give a big hand once again to our guest of honor, Mr. Kevin Yeung. Thank you!

Jack Ho Moon Tim

Principal, Buddhist Sin Tak College

VOTE OF THANKS 2016

Good afternoon Mr. Yeung, Mr. Ho, parents, teachers and fellow schoolmates.

Today is one filled with gratitude. A day that symbolizes acknowledgement. Of our success, our challenges, and most of all, our cumulative effort. It is also a day on which, for the last time, we say goodbye to our school and our school life.

The ultimate constant in life is always change. We as teenagers have seen quite a shift in the tides, especially in the society we currently live in. As did our predecessors. As will our successors. But this school, this very place we have spent six years in, will always be our sanctuary. Buddhist Sin Tak College has been, and will remain a place where we are protected, and are brought up as future pillars of society. Therefore, I would like to express my gratitude to all the people for making Buddhist Sin Tak College our home.

Firstly, I would like to thank all the teachers for being our allies, friends and family. You stand by us when we face challenges that may drown us, illuminating the right path for us. You pass invaluable knowledge to us, not just for our public exams and intellectual development, but also for our mental and personal improvement. We are now ready to be responsible, independent and compassionate citizens because of you. Our teachers, to all of you, I give our deepest gratitude. Let's give a round of applause for our dedicated teachers!

I would also like to express my most sincere thankfulness to all our parents. Piles of assignments bombarded us, followed by yet another stack of homework. Working overnight and staying late at school was the norm for many of us. The amount of our work was relentless. And yet we were still given a moment of true peace when we got home and found a bowl of hot soup waiting for us. Our parents helped shoulder our burden by listening to our babble and complaints about our school work. We would never have made our way through these obstacles without your support. My fellow graduates, let's give another round of applause for our caring parents!

My fellow graduates, today is a day when all the effort we have made since the first day we arrived at the school has come to a fruitful conclusion. It is a day of completion and accomplishment. But the end is only yet another beginning. We have come far, yes. Perhaps further than we might be able to comprehend. But let's bear in mind that there are always potential storms ahead of us, gales that threaten harshness and brutality. Today, we are thankful for being able to deal with difficulties. We are thankful that we have the capacity to stay strong.

My fellow graduates, this might be our finale. But this is only an overture to something more promising and exciting to come. Schoolmates, please rise with me. Please give your greatest applause to our home for one last time. Good-bye, and thank you.
